NLL PLAYOFF FAQs

2024 WINGS PLAYOFFS

What is the NLL Playoff Format?

The NLL has a unified playoff format, where the top 8 teams in the league make the playoffs. The Quarterfinal round will be single elimination. The Semi-finals and Finals will continue to be best-of-three series.

How do I receive my seats for the 2024 NLL Playoffs?

No action is needed to purchase your tickets for the NLL playoffs. Your seating location will automatically be rolled into the playoffs for the maximum number of home games played in each round. If you do not wish to purchase your seats for the playoffs, we will send out more information on the NLL Playoff opt out process in the coming weeks. Similar to your Loyal, Loud, & Proud Membership tickets, you can access your playoff tickets digitally through Wells Fargo Center Account Manager.

What are the payment plan options for NLL Playoffs?

For the NLL Playoffs, the Wings employ a "Pay as we Play" payment plan. The card on file for your season tickets will be charged upon clinching for the maximum number of games in the upcoming round. Should the Wings not play the maximum number of games in the round, you will have the option of rolling any money paid in toward the 2024-25 season.

What if I don't wish to renew my seats, but would like to purchase my seats for the 2024 NLL Playoffs?

If you do not renew your seats, you may still purchase your Loyal, Loud, & Proud Membership seating location at the non-renewed member rates listed above.

How do I purchase additional seats for the 2024 NLL playoffs?

Loyal, Loud, & Proud Members will have the opportunity to purchase additional playoff strips as well as single game tickets. Stay tuned for more information within the coming weeks.

May I pay in full for the NLL Playoffs?

You can pay in full for the 2024 NLL Playoffs. The value for any unplayed games can be applied to your 2024-25 Loyal, Loud, & Proud Membership or you may request a refund by contacting your account manager.

What if I want to purchase playoff tickets game by game?

Members will receive a presale opportunity to purchase single game tickets for the NLL playoffs.
